

Membership is open to all persons and organisations that wish to support the activities of the Trust.

Members are invited to join in all aspects of our activities. If you do not live locally or do not have the time to be active, you can still support the Trust by becoming a member. The trust publishes an e-newsletter to keep its members informed, and the website is continually updated with the latest news as well as other useful information.

Membership is free and perpetual so you only need to complete this form once and we will keep you informed of our activities as long as you wish. We principally communicate electronically with e-mails, e-newsletters and through our website.

Please complete this form and mail it to:

Thank you.

The Wellington & Manawatu Railway Trust is a registered charitable organization with the primary objectives:

- To acquire by agreement the remains of ex—Wellington & Manawatu Railway Company's locomotive number 9, also know as New Zealand Railways locomotive N class number 453 for preservation and restoration.
- To rebuild and restore locomotive number 9 to operational condition, preserving the existing original fabric of the locomotive as far as possible, and to operate the locomotive on heritage railways and the national railway network.
- To raise funds for the restoration and operation of locomotive number 9 and other trust activities.
- To preserve and restore railway equipment that has been associated with the Wellington & Manawatu Railway.
- To promote knowledge, education and discussion of the Wellington & Manawatu Railway.
